The Course

Whether starting a business, growing a business or preparing for retirement, the probability of accomplishing your goal increases substantially when you plan it rather than just start doing it. Planning is even more critical during challenging economic times or when multiple people and groups need to coordinate their actions to accomplish the primary goals, as is true of almost all organizational goals.

In today's challenging economic world, organizational planning has become even more critical, not only to survive but to thrive. Most business executives will agree, intellectually, with the preceding statement, but agreement is not enough.

Many organizations still fall into one of the following predicaments:

- They do not plan
- They do plan, but plan poorly
- They plan properly, but do not communicate the plan throughout the organization
- They plan properly, but do not implement the plan
- They plan properly, communicate and implement, but do not measure effectively so they are never certain if they accomplished the intended result

The Goals

- Understand the concepts and the differences between of strategy, planning, goals and tactics

- Demonstrate how the operating unit's strategic plan contributes to the organization's strategic plan
- Master the steps in building a useful strategic plan
- Recognize and Review your options during the process to optimize your results
- Create clear, simple communication tools
- Build a solid strategic plan that is unique to your organization
- Develop a realistic implementation plan
- Measure your results to make sure the organization is achieving its objectives

The Process

The training process is a blend of presentation, small group work on real company case studies, demonstration of template examples and practical exercises. Bring your own strategic challenges for input. Included in the manual is a comprehensive bibliography.

The Scandinavian Academy for Training and Development adopts the latest scientific and professional methodologies in training and human resource development, aiming to enhance the efficiency of individuals and organizations. Training programs are delivered through a comprehensive approach that includes:

- Theoretical lectures supported by PowerPoint presentations and visual materials (videos and short films).
- Scientific evaluation of participants before and after the program to measure progress and knowledge acquisition.
- Brainstorming sessions and practical role-playing to simulate real-life scenarios.
- Case studies tailored to align with the training content and participants work nature.
- Assessment tests conducted at the end of the program to evaluate the achievement of training objectives.

Each participant receives the training material (both theoretical and practical) in printed form and saved on a CD or flash drive. Detailed reports, including attendance records, final results, and overall program evaluations, are also provided.

Training materials are prepared professionally by a team of experts and specialists in various fields. At the end of the program, participants are awarded a professional attendance certificate, signed and accredited by the Scandinavian Academy for Training and Development.
