Introduction

The International Procurement Professional (CIPP) Certification Preparation Course, accredited by the International Purchasing & Supply Chain Management Institute (IPSCMI), is meticulously designed to equip professionals with the essential knowledge and skills required to navigate the complexities of international procurement within the realm of supply chain management.

This comprehensive program lays a solid foundation in international procurement principles and practices, aligning with the rigorous standards set forth by IPSCMI. Participants will gain an in-depth understanding of global procurement concepts, exploring its intricate dynamics and strategic methodologies.

Throughout the course, participants will delve into various facets of international procurement, including essential documentation, contract management, legal and political considerations, and organizational factors impacting procurement processes. Additionally, the course will cover cultural nuances in negotiation strategies and the influence of government regulations on import/export procedures, ensuring a well-rounded grasp of the global procurement landscape.

Upon successful completion, candidates will not only develop a comprehensive understanding of international procurement but will also be well-prepared to undertake the Certified International Procurement Professional (Level I) examination. This prestigious designation validates proficiency in the fundamentals of procurement, as assessed through the International Purchasing Body of Knowledge (IPBOK).

Course Objectives

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:
