Introduction

This workshop introduces the principle of strategy and develops an effective process for developing strategy at all levels in an organisation. This workshop will also focus on the critical roles of team leader and middle manager in harnessing their team`s potential, and introduces and practices techniques for moving the team to peak performance.

Key highlights of the course are:

- Business analysis
- Strategic team working
- Strategic presentation skills
- Identification and use of team members` talents and preferences
- Structuring the team for peak effectiveness
- Creating and communicating a compelling vision
- Motivating and developing your team
- Managing performance and conflict

The seminar is split into two modules:

MODULE I - Strategy & Strategic Planning

MODULE II -Leading High Performing Teams

Each module is structured and can be taken as a stand-alone course; however, delegates will maximise their benefits by taking Module 1 and 2 back-to-back as a two-week seminar.

Objectives

By the end of this programme you will be able to:

- To define and to demystify the concepts of 'strategy' and 'strategic plans', but also to demystify the strategic process - as part of 'Helicopter Thinking'
- To break the strategy process down step-by-step, providing a practical toolkit for managers for each key stage
- To illustrate it through some well chosen and highly stimulating case studies - and to distil the lessons from this
- To apply it to your own area of management responsibility - through planning the analysis, option generation, choice, implementation and measurement phases of strategy
- To put this within the overall context of the organisation and of the change and influencing process generally
- To give you a lot more confidence in managing your role strategically within your organisation
- To understand your role as a manager and a leader
- To establish clear objectives and standards of performance for your team and to manage and use conflict and challenge

Training Methodology

The seminar uses a range of approaches to learning, including experiential group activities, individual exercises, mini-case studies, role plays and syndicate discussions. Formal inputs are used to introduce underpinning theory. A key part of the learning process is sharing the differing experiences participants bring, as well as experimenting with novel - and sometimes challenging - techniques.

Organisational Impact

- Much better decision-taking and time and resource allocation - leading to better organisational and individual performance
- Use of a well proven planning process
- More effective implementation

Fully functional teams are at the heart of organisational performance. Leaders at all levels who can effectively structure, integrate and motivate their teams are better able to focus on longer-term organisational and customer needs.

Personal Impact

- Increasing career flexibility (vertically and horizontally)
- Accelerated thinking speed and problem resolution for all difficult dilemmas
- Far greater motivation and proactivity
- Exposed to a range of perspectives on teams and the leadership function, sharing examples of best practice and together solving real and simulated team performance issues.
- Practice new and sometimes challenging techniques will build flexibility and confidence in harnessing the power of the team.

The Scandinavian Academy for Training and Development adopts the latest scientific and professional methodologies in training and human resource development, aiming to enhance the efficiency of individuals and organizations. Training programs are delivered through a comprehensive approach that includes:

- Theoretical lectures supported by PowerPoint presentations and visual materials (videos and short films).
- Scientific evaluation of participants before and after the program to measure progress and knowledge acquisition.
- Brainstorming sessions and practical role-playing to simulate real-life scenarios.
- Case studies tailored to align with the training content and participants work nature.
- Assessment tests conducted at the end of the program to evaluate the achievement of training objectives.

Each participant receives the training material (both theoretical and practical) in printed form and saved on a CD or flash drive. Detailed reports, including attendance records, final results, and overall program evaluations, are also provided.

Training materials are prepared professionally by a team of experts and specialists in various fields. At the end of the program, participants are awarded a professional attendance certificate, signed and accredited by the Scandinavian Academy for Training and Development.

Program Timings:

- 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM in Arab cities.
- 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM in European and Asian cities.

The program includes:

- A daily buffet provided during the sessions to ensure participants comfort.
