Course Description:

Project management is growing exponentially. It's now used in virtually all industries. Projects are how these organizations streamline to improve productivity and often require resources which are not under the direct control of the project manager. So the project manager will therefore need to work with the relevant line manager to control these resources as and when they are required in order to reduce the deviation between actual performance and planned performance. This five-day course covers the major aspects of project planning and control: Tracking the progress of the project, evaluating performance vs. plan, and correcting discrepancies between planned and actual progress

Course Goal:

To enhance the participants' knowledge, skills, and abilities necessary to develop the participants skills with the advanced topics of Project Planning & Scheduling

The Scandinavian Academy for Training and Development adopts the latest scientific and professional methodologies in training and human resource development, aiming to enhance the efficiency of individuals and organizations. Training programs are delivered through a comprehensive approach that includes:

- Theoretical lectures supported by PowerPoint presentations and visual materials (videos and short films).
- Scientific evaluation of participants before and after the program to measure progress and knowledge acquisition.
- Brainstorming sessions and practical role-playing to simulate real-life scenarios.
- Case studies tailored to align with the training content and participants work nature.
- Assessment tests conducted at the end of the program to evaluate the achievement of training objectives.

Each participant receives the training material (both theoretical and practical) in printed form and saved on a CD or flash drive. Detailed reports, including attendance records, final results, and overall program evaluations, are also provided.

Training materials are prepared professionally by a team of experts and specialists in various fields. At the end of the program, participants are awarded a professional attendance certificate, signed and accredited by the Scandinavian Academy for Training and Development.
