Course Introduction

In today's rapidly changing and highly competitive business environment, successful selling requires more than just persuasive skills—it demands a deep understanding of customer needs, strategic thinking, and the ability to build lasting value-based relationships. This dynamic training program equips participants with the essential tools and techniques to transform their sales approach from transactional to consultative.

Throughout this course, participants will explore the evolving nature of personal selling, gain insight into the psychology of the sales process, and learn how to align their selling strategies with the customer's buying journey. With a strong emphasis on practical application, participants will also refine their communication skills, learn to overcome common sales objections, and enhance their ability to manage and retain valuable customer relationships.

Course Objectives

By the end of the program, participants will be able to:

- Integrate consultative and value added selling into their professional practices.
- Understand the process and psychology of the sales cycle.
- Synchronize their selling cycle to the buying cycle of the customer.
- Manage the value of their customers.

This Program is designed for Sales and Marketing staff as well as anyone who needs to sell a commodity or an idea to another person.

The Scandinavian Academy for Training and Development adopts the latest scientific and professional methodologies in training and human resource development, aiming to enhance the efficiency of individuals and organizations. Training programs are delivered through a comprehensive approach that includes:

- Theoretical lectures supported by PowerPoint presentations and visual materials (videos and short films).
- Scientific evaluation of participants before and after the program to measure progress and knowledge acquisition.
- Brainstorming sessions and practical role-playing to simulate real-life scenarios.
- Case studies tailored to align with the training content and participants work nature.
- Assessment tests conducted at the end of the program to evaluate the achievement of training objectives.

Each participant receives the training material (both theoretical and practical) in printed form and saved on a CD or flash drive. Detailed reports, including attendance records, final results, and overall program evaluations, are also provided.

Training materials are prepared professionally by a team of experts and specialists in various fields. At the end of the program, participants are awarded a professional attendance certificate, signed and accredited by the Scandinavian Academy for Training and Development.
