Introduction

This new program is in specific response from you our customers. It provides you with the latest thinking, methods and tools to be able to complete the two most important areas of training -TNA and Evaluation. In today's difficult financial climate these are the two areas that will really make a difference to any training function.

This program will also help to raise the professional profile of training because of its exact process approach. Using our methodologies you will be able to do TNA in less time and with greater accuracy, know what to evaluate and use a proven process to do predictive evaluation. If you are required to do so you will be able to show which training provides measurable value to the organisation using new techniques.
