Introduction

In order for individuals and teams to consistently perform it is essential to equip them with the skills, knowledge and behaviours required for success. This is an ongoing challenge due to the rate of change that organisations experience. The impact and importance of training within an organisation can be measured and directly linked to the achievement of organisational goals and objectives.

This exciting and engaging training course explores the critical role that people development plays in moving a business forward and in the achievement of personal, team, departmental and organisational goals and objectives. Delegates will also explore how they can develop and promote the role of the training function within their organisation.

Highlights of this engaging course are:

- How to produce focussed training strategies and plans
- How to influence through results
- How to explore many options for learning
- How to get the best out of people through development
- How to demonstrate added value and ROI

Objectives

By the end of this course delegates will be able to:

- Describe the role of training within an organisation
- Plan a transition from training to organisational development
- Link training to organisational goals
- Conduct an effective training needs analysis
- Develop a training strategy
- Identify learning solutions
- Evaluate training
- Promote value added training

Training Methodology

The seminar is based on a combination of interactive activities - group and individual exercises, case studies, skills practice and discussions - along with formal inputs. The environment will be supportive in which individuals with varying degrees of experience will be encouraged to share the approaches they currently use as well as try out new ones that they encounter on the seminar. The expert seminar facilitator will be on hand to answer any questions an individual may have and to act as a facilitator for building and applying new approaches.

Organisational Impact

Impact on the organisation from delegates attending this seminar includes:

- Enhancement of a wide range of skills and competencies
- Improved results from training within a business.
- New techniques in training strategy that are essential in developing partnership with internal clients
- Developed and convincingly submitting training plans
- More focused training and development
- Evaluation of training programmes to drive up quality and effectiveness

Personal Impact

Attendance at the seminar will result in individuals being better able to:

- Implement a wide range of strategic planning techniques in the learning and development environment
- Use enhanced interpersonal skills
- Improve their ability to make training a more critical part of a business
- Demonstrate how training budget should be seen as an investment
- Able to use different techniques and approaches for effectively working through a training strategy
- Apply new skills effectively in the workplace

The Scandinavian Academy for Training and Development adopts the latest scientific and professional methodologies in training and human resource development, aiming to enhance the efficiency of individuals and organizations. Training programs are delivered through a comprehensive approach that includes:

- Theoretical lectures supported by PowerPoint presentations and visual materials (videos and short films).
- Scientific evaluation of participants before and after the program to measure progress and knowledge acquisition.
- Brainstorming sessions and practical role-playing to simulate real-life scenarios.
- Case studies tailored to align with the training content and participants work nature.
- Assessment tests conducted at the end of the program to evaluate the achievement of training objectives.

Each participant receives the training material (both theoretical and practical) in printed form and saved on a CD or flash drive. Detailed reports, including attendance records, final results, and overall program evaluations, are also provided.

Training materials are prepared professionally by a team of experts and specialists in various fields. At the end of the program, participants are awarded a professional attendance certificate, signed and accredited by the Scandinavian Academy for Training and Development.
