Introduction

Who does not want to be part of a winning team? Everyone wants to be on a winning team but the emphasis is on team. Therefore all the players must work together to create a win-win outcome. This requires the input the theoretician the practitioner and the implementer.

Safety Management has come under considerable scrutiny in the light of recent disasters. However the concept of Safety Management Systems is usually limited to the systematic approach and not to the holistic (all aspect) approach. Safety Management must encompass both the hard and soft aspects of safety to produce an exceptional outcome. Health and Safety has to be managed with the same degree of expertise and to the same standards as other core business activities because of the high cost of failures; Legislation requiring employers to assess and manage risks; Public opinion on risk acceptability moving against poorly managed organizations which impose excessive risks and high profile disasters which fuel public opinion

The seminar is based upon 'Successful Health and Safety Management' as produced by the Health and Safety Executive UK but not only, as various topics for High Hazard Plants will be looked into in more detail.

The seminar will cover:

- Legislation
- 'Successful Health and Safety Management' (HSG 65)
- COSHH and Hazard Communications
- Risk assessments & HAZOP studies
- Culture and Behaviour
